This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- I The species of figures 2,3A-3c, and
- II The species of figures 4,5

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims appear to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 17,19-21,23,24 appear to be drawn to the species of group I, and claims 22,25-27,30 appear to be drawn to the species of group II.

The following claim(s) appear to be generic: 1,18,28.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The first species comprises a portable, manually operable device that can include a head support, while the second species comprises a bed in combination with an integrated electromechanical drive means, and can include a displaceable axis.

A telephone call was made to Mr. McIlvaine's office on 5/30/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6,349,433 which is the US equivalent of WO 97/10792 is made of record.

It appears that the closest prior art was made OF RECORD in the IDS filed on 2/9/07, and applied the claims in the PCT/ISA/210 submitted on 2/9/07.

In order to advance prosecution, in response to this office action may want to submit amended claims that patentably distinguish over the prior art of record.
